WRIT PETITION NO.23580 OF 2005

ORAL ORDER: (Per Hon'ble Smt. Justice T. Meena Kumari)

A letter dated 26.10.2005 sent by the petitioner seeking a direction to the respondents to produce her husband viz., Kuppireddy Venkat Reddy, who was illegally detained by the respondents, before this Court and set him at liberty, is taken up as writ petition.

The 1st respondent filed a counter-affidavit stating that on enquiry, the petitioner revealed before him that her husband was not detained by anybody including the police and she did not send any letter to this Court.

The learned Advocate General submitted that the husband of the petitioner was not detained and the petitioner herself stated before the police that she did not send any letter to the High Court and her husband is staying in Hyderabad and he is in contact with her now and then.

On the submission made by the learned Advocate-General on 7.11.2005, time has been granted for production of the alleged detenu.

Today at 10.30 a.m., K. Padmavathi is present with her husband K. Venkat Reddy. She also filed an affidavit before this Court stating that she did not send any letter to this Court and somebody has sent the same.

In view of the fact that the alleged detenu was not detained by the respondents and he was produced before this Court by his wife, we do not find any reason to further proceed in this matter.

Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed.
